FOR PRESIDENT:

SAMUEL J. TILDEN,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS,

OF INDIANA.

FOR CONGRESS, 8th DISTRICT.

M. J. DURHAM,

OF BOYLE COUNTY.

DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE.

ISAAC CALDWELL, of Jefferson.

JOHN A. WILLIAMS, of Georgetown.

First District—C. T. ALLEN, of Caldwell.
Second District—W. T. KELLY, of Daviess.
Third District—C. F. McCLINTOCK, of Warren.
Fourth District—W. N. BUCKINGHAM, of Nelson.
Fifth District—A. G. VANCE, of Jefferson.
Sixth District—S. S. SCOTT, of Boone.
Seventh District—T. W. HAYES, of Shelby.
Eighth District—W. J. MILLER, of Lincoln.
Ninth District—B. C. CRYSTON, of Montgomery.
Tenth District—HARVEY L. STONER, of Boyle.

JUDGE DURHAM.—The people of the 8th district are proud of Judge Durham as their representative in Congress. Twelve have they honored him with a seat in the Lower House, and such is their confidence in him as a working, honest, able and untiring member that they, with singular unanimity, re-nominated him for a third term and intend to return him with a majority far greater than he received in either of the two former races. Placed on committees by the Speaker of the House, where hard work and much of it was to be done, he went forth to a faithful discharge of his duties. Such was the admirable manner in which he performed his work, that Mr. Randall, a leading member of that body, and several other members, made special mention of him. His experience in that body, his acquaintance with all of the objects and aims of the Radical members, render him peculiarly fit to represent us and the nation generally, in that very important branch of legislation.

What sane man, especially if he be a Democrat, would fail to aid in his election over such a man as Bradley? The voting is to be by ballot. No mortal man need know for whom you vote, but yourself. Let every man, who would place in Congress as our representative one fit to be there, put in the ballot box the name of Milton J. Durham. Printed tickets will be furnished to all. See to it that the ticket you fold and put in the box has only the name of Milton J. Durham upon it. But we have somewhat digressed. We cannot speak too highly of Mr. Durham. As legislator, lawyer or citizen, he is the peer of any man in the land. All who have needed and secured his services as attorney in our courts, will bear willing testimony to his zeal and fidelity in the cause. With the same zeal and untiring energy he has attended to national affairs, and with his usual promptness has he attended to your interests at the capital when called upon when he was able to assist you.

As a citizen, in the ordinary transactions of life, he is known for his honesty and fair dealing. Around the social board he is the same urbane, agreeable gentleman to all, regardless of wealth or poverty. He is a tribute to all honest men, poor or rich. Such is Milton J. Durham, the man whom the Democrats of the 8th district present to the people for their votes. Is such a man not worthy of them?

The author of the squib in the Southern Republican, accusing us of lunacy, is respect fully informed that we consider it far more creditable to be a lunatic than a "natural born d—n fool" like himself. Lunacy is the result of an over taxed mind and is susceptible of cure, but no drug in the materia medica has ever been discovered that will cure a fool of his folly, nor has any magic been found to teach him wisdom. Furthermore, we would say to the a. b. d. f., that it is never worth while to fill his narrow little brain with wonder at his responsibility for editorial articles in this paper, our name at its head is a guarantee for that. We never write anything, either, that we are afraid to own, and would scorn the idea of hiding behind a board of directors, (as we learn the Republican scribbler do) when called to answer for scurrilous articles. Be a man or a mouse.

If you know of any old, decrepit, poor, or otherwise physically or financially disabled Democrat who has no means of getting to the polls next Tuesday, it is the duty of some one or more good Democrats in his neighborhood to see to it that conveyance is furnished him to and from the polls, in order to secure his vote. Precinct committees should see that these matters are promptly attended to. Every Democrat who can be got to the polls must vote this time. We tell you that this is a struggle for national existence, and we will win by a strong effort.

Look out for the persons on election day, who get possession of that money raised for Bradley by the storekeepers of Marion, Washington and Nelson, to be used to buy votes for him. Every precinct should be watched. Spot the violators of the election law.

OUR CANDIDATES.—Who and what are the men presented to the people of the United States, by the Democracy, for their votes to elevate them to the two highest offices within the gift of a free people? For president, they put forward Samuel J. Tilden, of New York. Who is he? Two years ago, when the citizens of that great State were laboring under a grievous burden of taxation, and were trampled upon by a horde of thieves and plunderers, they looked about them for some man who could stop the plundering and govern them honestly. Regardless of party, the people with one voice called aloud upon Samuel J. Tilden to make the race for governor. He heard the cry of his oppressed citizens, and heeded it. He made the race and was chosen to the position by a majority of 50,000. When he was elected, the taxes of the people of New York were sixteen millions of dollars per year; such were the villainies of the canal ring and others. Mr. Tilden took them in hand and reformed things generally, and to such an extent, that in a very short time, the taxes were cut down one-half, and instead of sixteen millions of dollars, they are now only about eight millions. Mr. Tilden has then proven himself to be a true reformer, honest, able, and capable, and if he should be elected president, he will show the same power in national affairs that he did in State matters. For the second highest office, is presented the Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana. As governor of that State, he has managed public affairs to the welfare of all, and to the entire satisfaction of all the citizens of the State. Not the slightest breath of suspicion has ever been breathed about him. Every act of his life, whether public or private, will bear the closest scrutiny. A learned lawyer, wise statesman, honest man, and a Christian, the Democracy of the Union placed his name upon their ticket as one worthy of the highest honors which an enlightened constituency can confer upon any one. Tilden and Hendricks; names fitly linked, of men who, if elected, will lead us out of the wilderness of our national troubles and cause peace and prosperity to reign throughout all our borders. With no lobby influences around to deceive and misguide them, as Hayes and Wheeler would have, they would go forth untrammelled, to a free and fearless discharge of their duties. Let a free and enlightened people vote for them next Tuesday.

THE very best men of the country, when influenced by their passions, often make terrible threats of dire vengeance, which in their calmer moments they dare not fulfill. So it is with a few Democrats in the Eighth Congressional district, who said they would not support Judge Durham. These dare not walk up to the polls and cast a vote for Bradley, alias Grantism. No physical power could prevent as wicked an act, but the still, small voice of conscience interposes and saves us from the commission of the crime. No good man, with a drop of undiluted and uncontaminated Democratic blood in his veins, can remain away from the polls next Tuesday, if it be possible for him to go; and it is not in our charitable nature to think that any man with as much mind as an ape, can profess to be a Democrat, and cast a secret ballot for Bradley. If one should commit such a crime against his reason, his conscience, his country, it is not wicked to hope that the Egyptian blackness of despair and unforgiveness may forever follow him.

"If I thought I had a drop of Radical blood in my veins I would pierce the skin and let out," quoth Bradley in the exuberance of his rebel passions a few years since, when the admitting of negro testimony into court was one of the issues of the campaign. But a change has come over the spirit of his dreams and the self same negroes that he would then have kept in slavery forever, having become voters, the astute Bradley rushes into their arms, falls on their necks and implores them with tears, honeyed flattery and misrepresentations, to send him to Congress. Colored men, Judge Durham is more your friend to-day than his janus faced competitor. Show your appreciation of the ballot by voting for honest and true men, such as Durham has proved himself.

We can assure our friends in other counties of this Congressional district that the Democracy of Lincoln county are awake and at work, and we intend next Tuesday to give our ticket, especially Judge Durham, the greatest majority of any county in the 8th, and a bigger one than ever received before. In order to make the foregoing prediction manifest, we urge it upon every Democrat in the county to redouble his diligence, and never tire in the good work for your country's well-being, her prosperity, and her glory.

As the Radical party has utterly failed to bring all the States back into a union of hearts and a union of hands, there should be a change of rulers. If the people will entrust national affairs with the Democrats, they will, before the close of Tilden's term of office, bind the sections together in one loving, equal Union.

The Democrats should learn a lesson from the Radical opponents, and be thoroughly organized.

GOVERNOR McCleery invited the children and their teachers of the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, at Louisville, over a hundred in number, to come up to Frankfort as his guests and dine with him. The invitation was accepted, and one day last week, a special train was chartered, and they went up. After visiting all the sights in and around the capitol, they went to the Governor's mansion and were set down to a most bountiful and elegant dinner. The day is said to have been one of great enjoyment, both to the visitors and the visited. This Home is one of the noblest charities in our State.

THE "Liver Regulator" man, not Simmons, but Dr. John D. Woods, has leased the Oregonian Times for three years. He made it, under the old management, one of the best papers in the State, but was expected to see "excellence excelled" now that he has full sway. If you are suffering with "Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Constipation or any other disease arising from a disordered liver," subscribe for the Times and take Dr. Woods' "Liver Regulator." Sure cure, we assure you. We have testimonials from all the prominent men of the land, but deem the above, etc.

A TERRIBLE collision has just occurred on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. A train of seventeen passenger coaches, drawn by three engines, and 1 dened with 1,200 people mostly bound for the Centennial, was run into by a coal train, at Lehigh Summit, where it had stopped for water. Two of the cars were telescoped through and through and five others were broken, killing two passengers outright and severely wounding twenty-five. The passenger train was two hours late.

AN American citizen, from Texas, went over to Matamoros, in Mexico, last summer, and was put in jail without cause. All of his appeals for relief to our Ministers there, and to Washington authorities, have been in vain. He is a crippled Union soldier. Where now is our loud boast that we glory in the protection of the American flag? But we forget, the entire army is needed in South Carolina to carry the election at the point of the layonet.

PROOF of the fact that the Southern claims, so-called, are owned and pressed by a lot of Radical ringsters, is that the Republican Free-third Congress passed $6,000,000 worth of them, while the Democratic House of the Forty-fourth Congress passed only $74,000. Hayes should rise and explain what he intends to do in the premises "J" (that's a long crooked letter) he is elected.

A LONG pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether will get us out of the old rut of Radicalism. Let Lincoln county Democrats make an especial effort to be the banner county of the 8th district. We can and must gain that distinction. Let there be a grand rally in every precinct next Tuesday morning soon. Keep up the fire all along the line of battle. Our figures are 400 majority.

OFFICIALS in Louisville have been in the habit of imprisoning people for the non-payment of costs, but the court there said they had no right to do so, and gave a man a judgment for $140 against two officers for false imprisonment. The same rule applies all over the State. Officers had better be careful how they put impetuous persons in duress vile.

"It is known," says the Mountain Echo, "that Thomas Turner is an infidel, and does not believe in the Bible."—[Louisville Commercial.

And it is known here at Col. Turner's home, that the Mountain Echo told an infamous lie when it gave utterance to the above.—[Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

BETTING who will be elected or who is defeated, amounts to nothing. Don't waste your breath in bragging and offering to bet. Go to work in the right way. Vote yourself, and get everybody else you can, to vote also. That will do far more good than betting. Besides, the game is lawless and the other unlawful.

SNEAKING around still-houses, holding secret night meetings with the darkies, starting false rumors, spreading lying circulars broad east, drawing on storekeepers of distilleries for campaign money, are some of the means used by the Radicals to carry the election.

DEMOCRATS, be on your guard from now until the polls are closed next Tuesday evening. There will, in all probability, be lying circulars put out by the Radical party to deceive the unwary. It is now rumored that they are in readiness for circulation.

It is rumored, and quite plausibly, that Bradley met twelve or fifteen distillery store-keepers at Lebanon one night last week, who came in from Nelson, Marion and Washington counties, and who raised him a large sum of money for electioneering use.

DEMOCRATS be on your guard. Do not listen to any proposition from the Radicals. We learn that they are endeavoring to gull unwary Democrats by proposing to vote for Tilden if the Democrats will vote for Bradley. Vote the ticket straight—Tilden, Hendricks and Durham.

We believe the law is that U. S. soldiers vote wherever they may be, for President and Vice President, regardless of the time they may have been in the locality. The citizens of the District of Columbia have no vote for these offices. A curious law, truly.

THE Radicals in Congress, in 1872, demonized silver by passing an act that it should only be legal-tender to the extent of five dollars. Judge Durham has introduced in Congress a bill to utilize silver and restore its legal-tender qualities.

Do the people of the district know that Judge Durham, by one investigation, saved the country $500,000? Such is the fact, and the committee on appropriations of the last House, complimented him for his efforts. The people should do the same.

GRANT is known as the poorest speaker that ever filled the office of President, but as poor as he is Hayes is much his inferior as his congratulatory speech at the Centennial on "Ohio day" and several other public utterances, plainly indicate.

EDWARD STOKES, the bloody assassin of James Fisk, of New York, was released from prison, on Saturday, last. He is said to be a complete wreck of his former self, and will hardly be the dashing, sporting man he once was.

DEMOCRATS should not believe the false rumors that the Radicals will no doubt put out on and before the day of the election. Secret, lying circulars are one means of deceiving the people which the Radicals glory in.

THERE are 226 convicts from the Tennessee State prison at work on the C. S. R. R. We could have spared an equal number from our's if the last Legislature had passed the bill permitting it, as they should have done.

THE directors of the Kentucky Central Railroad have decided to extend their road to Knoxville from Nicholasville, at a very early day. This, when completed, will give our State almost unequalled railroad facilities.

OUR taxes have been seven hundred millions per annum under Radical rule, while our net earnings have been only half that sum. Are we not drifting rapidly to bankruptcy? Do we not need a change?

BOSS SHEPARD, of Washington, gave a check, the other day, for $10,000 to aid in the illegal perpetuation of Grantism. It is a desperate case with the Boss. It is Radical rule or ruin to him.

THE Radicals are offering gullible Democrats to vote for Tilden and Hendricks if they will vote for Bradley. Don't be deceived. They would offer anything to beat Durham.

THE South responded heartily to the sentiments of Governor Tilden's letter as to the non-payment of Southern war claims. The Radicals are therefore unhappy.

THE Democrats entertain the same spirit which possessed the patriots of 1776. The Radicals cheerish a spirit of vengeance and hate. The two are a century apart.

If you want to see this country grow and prosper as it never did before, you will show that you do by voting for Tilden and Hendricks next Tuesday.

The authority of any statement in the Southern Republican, is about as uncertain as the "They say" of the silly tongueless gossip.

ENCOURAGING reports come from all parts of the 8th district, and show the election of Durham to be a fixed fact.

THE cash receipts of the Centennial have been $3,279,483 25, a net profit of $1,500,000.

THERE are 32,000 more voters registered in New York this year than last.

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS.

Nicholsville, October 31, 1876.

Our quiet village has been struck with a sensation. Mrs. Narcissa Smith, of the Female College, has returned to her home, in Mercer. The wedding is understood to have come off to-day. There is said to be a somewhat of romance in the affair—a case of early love on both sides. For some reason they failed to be united. Both married other parties; the gentleman, Mr. Jones, residing in Missouri, and the lady settling in Kentucky. And now after the lapse of years, both being again single, the suit is renewed more prosperously. None of us suspected that the quiet, retiring, dignified widow intended playing us such a trick. But she has the best wishes of many sincere and admiring friends in this community.

Dr. Ed. Alcorn left yesterday for the East. Some say he has gone as a missionary to the Fijee Islands. Others allege that he is intimidated by Col. Zantzen, our Baltimore Radical, and thus compelled to get out of the way before the election. The most plausible conjecture is that he has gone to the Centennial, at the instance of F. C. Gould, who pays his expenses, in consideration of his agreeing to place in the Exposition a model of that Venetian. The Dr. expects to make the experiment remunerative. He designs selling it to the Jews as a thing which they may worship without a violation of the canon concerning idolatry. It certainly is not the likeness of any thing in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth.

During the storm on Sunday evening, the lightning struck, and entirely consumed, a shock of corn in Will Burton's field, opposite the stock scales on the Stanford road. Mr. J. B. Green, who together with his wife was reining in a buggy, from preaching, was just approaching the temple, and was near and deeply interested spectator. His horse, which is very spirited, seems to have been dazed and bewildered by the flash and report. He reared wildly, but the danger seeming to be in front, and a strong hand on the reins, he did not get away. Mr. G. says that at the moment of the crash a dense volume of smoke enveloped the shock, which was instantaneously ignited in every portion and seemed to be literally lifted from the ground a body of brilliant flame. The spectator is willing to receive, with implicit faith, henceforth, all that is taught on the subject of electricity, but don't desire any further illustrations.

J. C. Johnson shipped another car load of cattle today. He does not carry his ventures, however, as far as Dr. J. T. Rife, who started with a lot of stock to Louisville—went by way of Pittsburg for a near cut—left his cattle there and stepped over to Philadelphia to set his watch by European time, got reared because he could not make the Japanese understand the peculiar excellence of his wares, and returned disgusted with the fact that he did not see a beautiful woman nor a pretty face in the entire exposition. Col. Weatherford was, at last advised, "settling up" with him and endeavoring to soothe away the effects of his disappointment.

Col. Hinchen is said to have been induced by the reward of a new hat and a silver half dollar, from Jim Hinkle, to stake his watch against $10, that he will drive his mare from Hintonville to the Louisville Hotel in twelve consecutive hours. The Col. says he thought Jim would back out, and he would make the premium clear—thus ostentatiously entering the young man's eye-teeth; but he believes now that Jim has materially sided in his decision.

A week or two since, B. a sanguine Radical of Bryantville, drove into Lancaster in a new buggy which he had just purchased, at a bargain, for $150. Capt. P., a staunch Democrat, saw and admired the vehicle, and inquired, in a bantering way, what it would take for it, payable when Hayes should be elected. B. offered to take $150, on the terms proposed. The Captain closed, and rides in the buggy, while B. holds his paper, which may, or may not, mature in a few days. Cheap enough, especially if Tilden should succeed.

Admission to the Probation.

A new and very interesting phase has just been presented by the present contest.

Within the last week we have seen the attention of one of the parties to it suddenly and strangely turned from the present conditions and demands of the struggle to the after consequences of it.

We have seen the Republicans halt in the very midst of the fight and call a general council to consider what is to be done after the fight is over and they are defeated.

Singularly enough, they look beyond November into February; they pass by the popular vote on the 7th of next month, and fix their attention on the counting of that vote in the capital at Washington on the second Wednesday of the second month of 1877. This is a remarkable incident.

It is remarkable because it follows immediately after the Republican defeat in Indiana and West Virginia; remarkable because the extraordinary council is called from Washington. Republican papers in New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis and San Francisco take precisely the same view of the anticipated emergency, and give the same advice about meeting it; and remarkable because of the singular conduct of the administration in connection with it.

The emergency indicated is the probable election of Tilden. By consulting about what is to be done after it shall have taken place; and they betray revolutionary designs by conspiring in a programme for thwarting the will of the people. They argue that Tilden will be elected; they assume that he will be elected by intimidation in the Southern States; and they declare that, if thus elected, he shall not be inaugurated. [St. Louis Republican.]

A New Dodge.

The feeblest effort yet made by the Republican leaders to arouse the fears of Northern people—especially capitalists—in regard to the election of Governor Tilden to the Presidency, is the attempt to create the impression that foreign capitalists will look with suspicion upon American securities in the event of Democratic success. This vain attempt indicates their apprehension of impending defeat to the Republican party. No such fear respecting the stability of American credit upon the election of Gov. Tilden is entertained abroad. The capitalists of Europe are as well informed as are the capitalists of the United States; they are as thoroughly posted respecting the superior wisdom of Democratic statesmen on finance, over the shallow-brained mediocrities of the Republican party, as are the American people themselves. They know, too, that the election of Governor Tilden will insure harmony between the North and South, and consequently, renewed prosperity to the whole country—two essential conditions of national credit and stability. Instead, therefore, of fear or suspicion, the capitalist of Europe will hail the approaching triumph of the Democratic party as affording ground for greatly increased confidence in all American securities, which can only be impaired by the continuance of the disturbing revolutionary policy of the Republican party of the ten years past. The weakness of the new dodge is too transparent for serious consideration. [Louisville News.]

The Battle Ground.

In spite of all that the Republicans can do by hypocrisies and bribery in the South, and by brazen falsehoods on the stump and a large corruption fund in the North, it is certain that Hayes will be defeated unless he can carry either New York or the three States of Connecticut, New Jersey, and Indiana. Now, though it is quite probable that the Democrats three weeks ago were so weak in Indiana as to place it among the doubtful States, yet the recent election has proved that it is as strong as for Tilden in November as Kentucky is. This fact, therefore, makes New York, Connecticut and New Jersey the battle ground for the remaining week of the campaign.

The friends of Hayes and corruption will struggle desperately to capture New York and the two adjoining States. It is a case of life and death to their cause, and they will fight with the energy of despair. Nevertheless, we are confident that the supporters of Tilden and Reform will put forth such energy during the coming week as to make sure of the fifty electoral votes of those States, thus saving the country from another term of Graftism, won by false professions and pretences. [N. Y. Sun.]

Radical Editors.

The following from the St. Louis Times is a pretty fair picture of untruths of the Radical editors who, driven to the wall, manufacture lies for partisan purposes:

"Joseph McGill, the present editor of the Kansas Tribune, is undoubtedly the most atrocious and infernal liar who is now writing for the press. The outrageous and unblushing falsehoods of which he has been guilty during the campaign should earn him an eternity of infamy. It is impossible that he should ever recover from the disgrace which he has inflicted upon himself by his contemptible course. In the vitriolic old wretch should be dragged through a horse pond, no amount of drainage would ever relieve the pond of the poison."

W. H. Miller, Mayor for the Eighth District.

Mr. W. H. Miller, district mayor for the 8th district, is a bachelor, thirty-three years old, and was born and raised in Lincoln county, Ky. His parents are natives of Madison county, Ky., and of Virginia parentage. He received his education in Lincoln county, except one year spent at Centre College, Danville, having entered the Junior class there in the fall of 1860. He only completed his Junior year, however, having left upon the breaking out of the war. In 1862 he entered the service of the Confederate States in the capacity of a soldier, in Capt. Thos. H. Shanks' company, of Col. J. W. Grigsby's regiment of cavalry, and was at the battle of Perryville, and in most of the other engagements took a part. Was captured with Morgan on his Ohio raid, and kept for months in prison, at Camp Chase, near Columbus, Ohio, and Camp Douglas, near Chicago, Ill., escaping from the latter place in April, 1864, and rejoining the forces of Gen. Morgan in West Virginia, after many difficulties. On the 4th of September, 1864, he received a wound at Greenville, upon the occasion of the killing of Gen. Morgan, which shattered his right arm badly, and rendered him hors de combat for the remainder of the war, and maimed him for life. He was detailed for secret service in Kentucky after returning from prison, but was prevented from the discharge of same by wound received at Greenville. Was disbanded at Woodstock, Ga., May 6, 1865.

Coming home he read law in the office of Maj. Squire Turner, from September, 1865, to November, 1866. After several months spent in the Southern States, he located at Stanford, Ky. In 1868 he was nominated by the Democrats of Lincoln county for the office of Circuit Court Clerk, and elected after an obstinate contest. In 1869-70 he published a newspaper called the Central Dispatch. In 1872 he was a candidate for assistant clerk of the Kentucky Senate, but was defeated by Jno. L. Sneed, the present incumbent, after a very protracted contest, in which nearly thirty ballots were taken. He served as second assistant clerk of the House of Representatives, by appointment, during the winter of 1873. In 1874, when re-nominated for the Clerk of the Lincoln Circuit Court, by the Democrats, but was defeated, all the Democratic ticket of this county having that year been overcome by a combination between the Radicals and Independents. Since September, 1874, he has been engaged in the practice of law, at Stanford, with satisfactory success.

Mr. Miller is doing good service in the canvass, and is one of the rising men of our State. [Elizabethtown News.]

If Tilden is Elected.

Should Tilden win, the very hills, "the eternal sentinels of God," would nod to the valleys, and the valleys would smile to the seas, and the seas would kiss the shores in joy over the event that would perpetuate civil liberty in the Republic, confidence would be restored, trade revived, hoarded millions put in circulation, specie resumption would come at once, born of the universal faith of citizens in the stability of our Government and the free and impartial administration of its laws. The broke-hearted South would be built up, prosperity would return to them, and black and white glory in the blessing of the country rescued from the princes of misrule and corruption. Columbia, daughter of the skies, will, with radiant brow, virtue in her heart, leading in the path of truth and liberty, waving her banner of light, conduct our people on an unimpeded career of matchless happiness, renown and power, with home rule secured, fraternity existing, and honesty, economy and justice practiced everywhere. So may it be for you and me, and our and our children's children after us. [From John Young Brown's Louisville speech.]

Tilden's Probable Cabinet.

Mr. Tilden's election being assured, the question is being asked who will constitute his next cabinet. Conjectures and predictions are, of course, all in vain, but knowing ones say it will staid something like this:

Secretary of State—Charles Francis Adams, of Massachusetts.

Secretary of the Treasury—Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio.

Secretary of War—John M. Palmer, of Illinois.

Secretary of the Navy—Andrew G. Curtin, of Pennsylvania.

Secretary of the Interior—Chas. A. Darn, of New York.

Postmaster General—Henry Waterson, of Kentucky.

Attorney General—James R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin.

We should like to see Iowa complimented in this matter, if possible. [Hurlington Gazette.]

When Grant went into office there were 52,000 office-holders. To-day there are 192,000. This increase was brought about by politicians who desired places for their favorites. Taste sea water on the western coast or the wildest sea, and it is all salt water. Go into the Republican party, and almost wherever you touch it and unmask it you will find exposed the most sickening aspect of personal dishonesty and official corruption. [From John Young Brown's Louisville speech.]

The Cincinnati Commercial is against Tilden, because it thinks that his election "will unsettle the South, will disturb, reverse and change the condition of affairs in the Southern States."

We support Tilden for these very reasons. If his election will change the condition of affairs in South Carolina and Louisiana, we shall certainly not complain; nor should any one, we think, who has the true interests of the Union at heart, object to it. The Radicals of the North complain of the condition of affairs now existing in these States, the political excitement and the race animosities and even riots and murders in South Carolina. If Tilden's election can change and reverse this, as the election of Democratic Governors in Virginia, Georgia and Arkansas has done in those States, it is the duty of all to support him. We want a change here, a complete reversal of every idea and action of Louisiana government. [New Orleans Democrat.]

The following is the electoral vote of the States of the Union:

Alabama	10	Arkansas	6
California	6	Colorado	3
Connecticut	6	Delaware	3
Florida	10	Georgia	10
Illinois	21	Indiana	11
Iowa	11	Kansas	6
Kentucky	11	Louisiana	9
Maine	7	Massachusetts	11
Michigan	13	Minnesota	11
Mississippi	9	Missouri	11
Montana	3	Nebraska	7
New Jersey	13	New York	33
North Carolina	11	Ohio	22
Oregon	4	Pennsylvania	29
Rhode Island	4	South Carolina	9
Tennessee	11	Texas	10
Vermont	3	Virginia	11
West Virginia	5	Wisconsin	10
Total	256

Mr. Tilden would gather about him a Cabinet unequalled for ability in the history of our Presidents. Mr. Hayes would be forced to take such fellows as Blaine, Don Cameron, Zach Chandler, and Secor Robertson, to whom he will owe great debt if he is elected. The master of Hayes's Administration would be Blaine, to whom Hayes is bound with the cords of affection and gratitude. Tilden would be surrounded by men like Charles Francis Adams, Lyman Trumbull, Bayard and Gordon, statesmen and men of approved character and ripe experience.

We wish to say to the friends of Tilden and Reform throughout the country, that they need feel no apprehensions about New York, Connecticut and New Jersey. They have been subjected to a thorough and careful canvass, minute and particular in every respect, and in which all the doubtful elements have been conceded to the Republicans. The result is that New York is absolutely to go for Tilden by an overwhelming majority, Connecticut by a large majority, and New Jersey by a sufficient majority. [N. Y. Sun.]

From what we know of the matter we are inclined to agree entirely with our Republican friends, and think the fact that so weak a candidate as "Blue Jeans" Williams was able to defeat a man whose personal strength was so much superior to his, plainly proves the strength of the Democrats in the West, and, at least, conclusively that Indiana is sure of a largely increased Democratic majority in November. [Boston Herald.]

"A better Government can be secured under proper economy, with all unnecessary and improper leakages stopped, than under a system of extravagance which tends to make all public officers indifferent and reckless. This is the true secret of administrative Reform. In New York we are running the Government for little more than half what it cost two years ago, and the work is at least as efficiently done." [Samuel J. Tilden.]

The other day a colored Hayes and Wheeler club, at Lynn, Massachusetts, was excluded from a Republican banquet and from a place in a Hayes procession solely on account of their color. Can not Taft, Grant and Cleveland spare a few regiments to proceed to Republican Massachusetts and insist that these "poor, inefficient negroes" shall enjoy their rights? The case is worthy the attention of Taft's colored brain. [Courier-Journal.]

Caricature and calumny—equally venemous and stinging—are the only weapons the Republicans have employed in this canvass. It can not be that the American people are sufficiently degraded to be affected by them. To consider it possible to defeat Tilden by brutal pictures and brutal slanders, would be to underrate the intelligence of the American people. [Albany Argus.]

It is granted that the political party which happens to possess the Federal Government may march soldiers into the States for political purposes, then we have paved the way broadly for general disorder. If these proceedings in South Carolina are not promptly disavowed by the Republican candidate, every Northern citizen who has a stake in the country ought to vote against him. [N. Y. Herald.]

From 1856 to 1860 the disbursements of the War Department were $101,348,944. From 1872 to 1876, when Belknap was presiding in the War office, in time of peace, the disbursements were $203,100,757. Republican rule has doubled and trebled the governmental expenses. Hayes will see that this ruinous system is kept up.
